

Goodwill Industries of the Conemaugh Valley's Julie Hassan Recruits at Somerset County Job Fair

Photo by Dave Lloyd, The Tribune-Democrat – October 21, 2011

Harry J. Vought III of Meyersdale talks with Julie Hassan, the training coordinator with Goodwill Industries, during Thursday's job fair.

Courtesy of Tribune-Democrat.
See article.

On Thursday, October 20, 2011, Julie Hassan, Training and Recruitment Coordinator for Goodwill Industries of the Conemaugh Valley (GICV), Inc. attended the annual Somerset County job Fair at the Quality Inn to let job seekers know about the many employment opportunities with GICV.

GICV is in the business of putting people to work. That's why its own employees are so important to the critical work that the agency does. GICV strives to recruit motivated, talented people who are passionate about business and passionate about people.

While the name "Goodwill" is one of the nation's most valuable and recognized nonprofit brands, it is also a strong leader in Workforce Development. In addition to operating 10 Goodwill Retail Stores in a six-county area, GICV provides career development, job training, and employment services to people with barriers to employment.

Areas for which GICV recruits include Human Services, Career Counseling, Human Resources, Retail Management, Retail Sales, Accounting, Information Technology, Transportation, and Custodial.

View GICV's current job openings.